I Call to Order

II Welcome Returning and New Members
It was decided that the meeting would serve the purpose of onboarding new members by being used as training for how the committee and the CIM system works. The chair informed members of the bylaws and their location on the provost’s website. She welcomed new and returning members; there were introductions.

The chair explained how the agenda works during regular meetings, with primary and secondary reviewers assigned to each proposal. She stressed members should look for their names on the agenda, as it could be anywhere on the page. Members learned about the different types of proposals that could come to committee, including new, change or inactivation of courses or programs, and then walked through the CIM form.

After the committee went through the agenda, there was some discussion on syllabi, with the potential for a subcommittee to look at that again.
